About Crisis Support Services of Nevada

Crisis Support Services of Nevada, formerly known as Crisis Call Center, provides free, confidential and caring support to people in crisis. We work every day to be a beacon of hope in people's darkest moments and empower them to see a better tomorrow.

For more than 50 years, we have provided an empathetic ear, a caring heart and a helping hand to anyone in need. We are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year to help anyone experiencing a personal crisis across Nevada and the United States.

We offer support and resources for depression, suicide, sexual assault, elder abuse, child abuse, domestic violence and substance abuse.

For information on all available support and resources, visit CSSNV.org.
