

Looking for Video Content for your Remote or Online Classes?

TMCC Library Services has you covered!

Find a video that works with your curriculum and embed into your canvas course for students to view for free. All you have to do is login with your TMCC credentials to start browsing the amazing collections below.

Digital Video Collections

- » Alexander Street: comprehensive and creative multimedia resources for the study of anthropology, including ethnographic film and previously unpublished primary sources.
- » Films On Demand: Over 100 high-quality educational videos. Subjects covered include astronomy, biology, chemistry, history, political science, and religion.
- » Kanopy Films \(including the Media Studies Collection\): Hundreds of documentary films to inspire critical thinking about social, political, and cultural impact of American mass media. Examples include: "Hip Hop: Beyond Beats & Rhymes"; "Killing Us Softly 3 & 4"; "Mickey Mouse Monopoly"; "Tough Guize".

Visual and Interactive Content

- » Anatomy & Physiology from Visible Body: A visually stunning, step-by-step introduction to each human body system.
- » Human Anatomy Atlas from Visible Body: A comprehensive 3D atlas of the human body.

